

Room For Creation

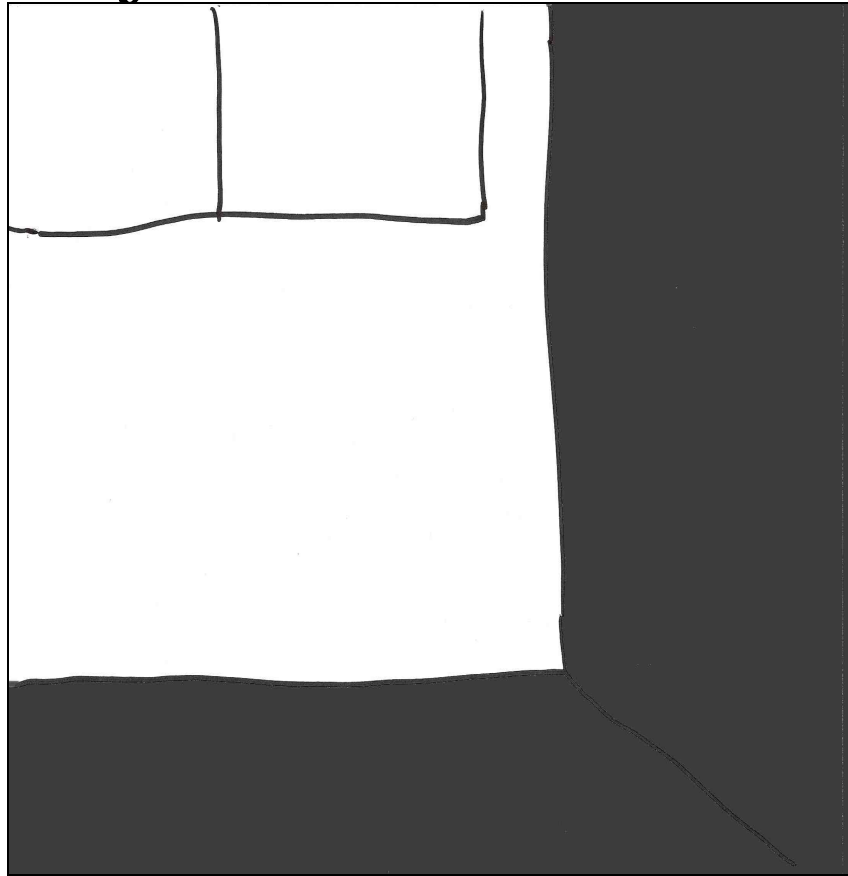

Day 1

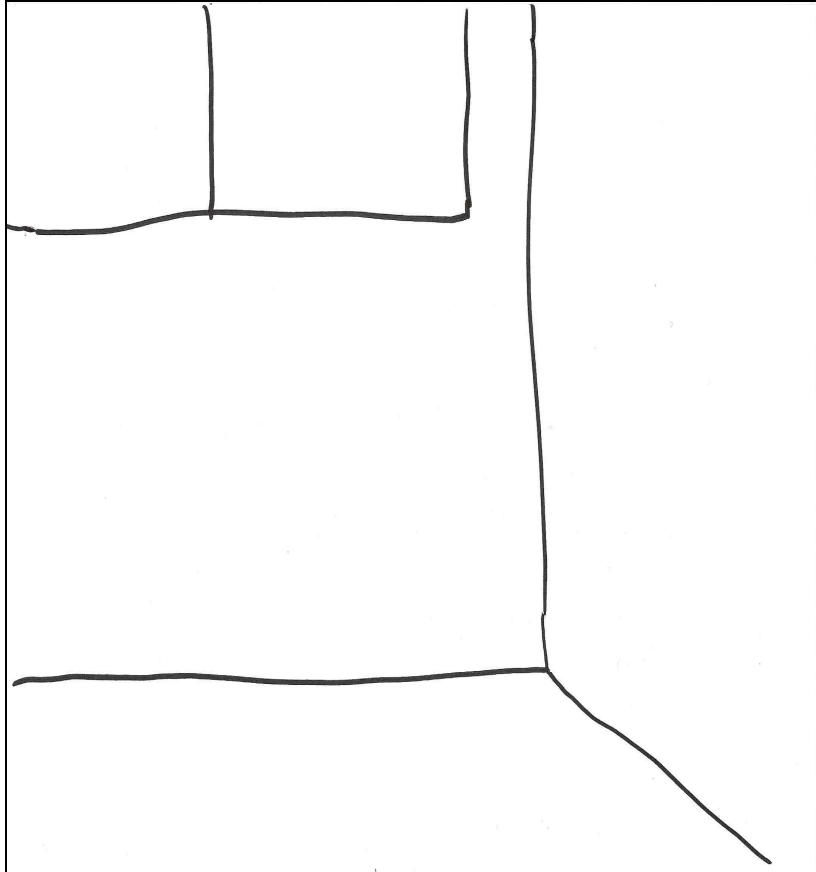

It was the first day
and God the father
made a wonderful room for His creation and it was good.

Day 1

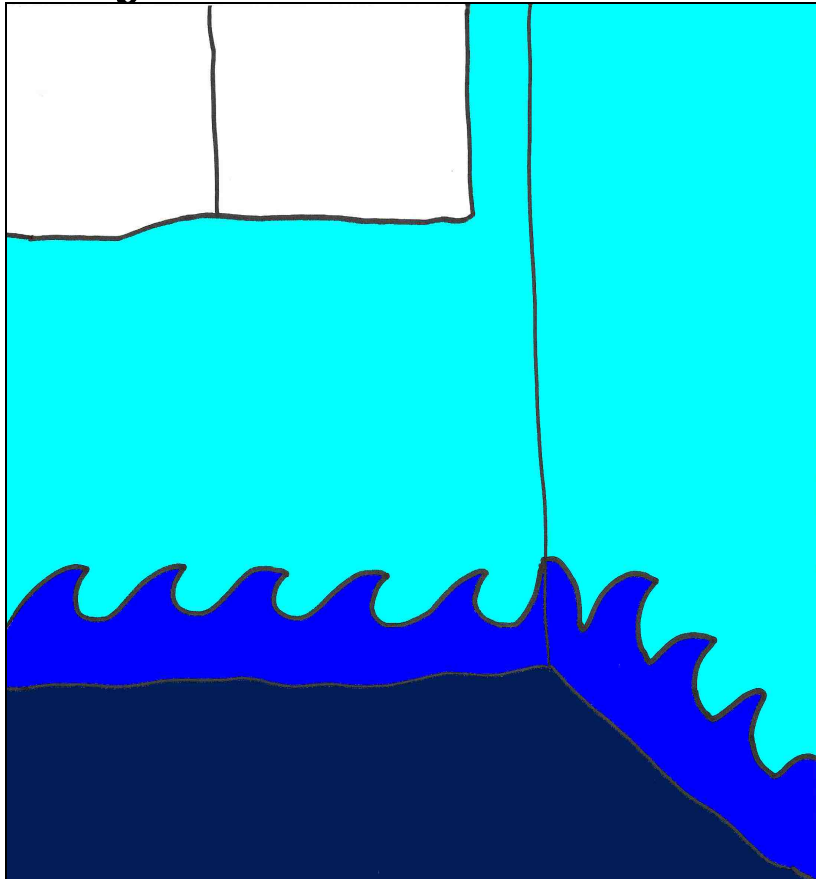

On day one He made in this room, light and He made the darkness; He made the day and He made the night.

Day 2

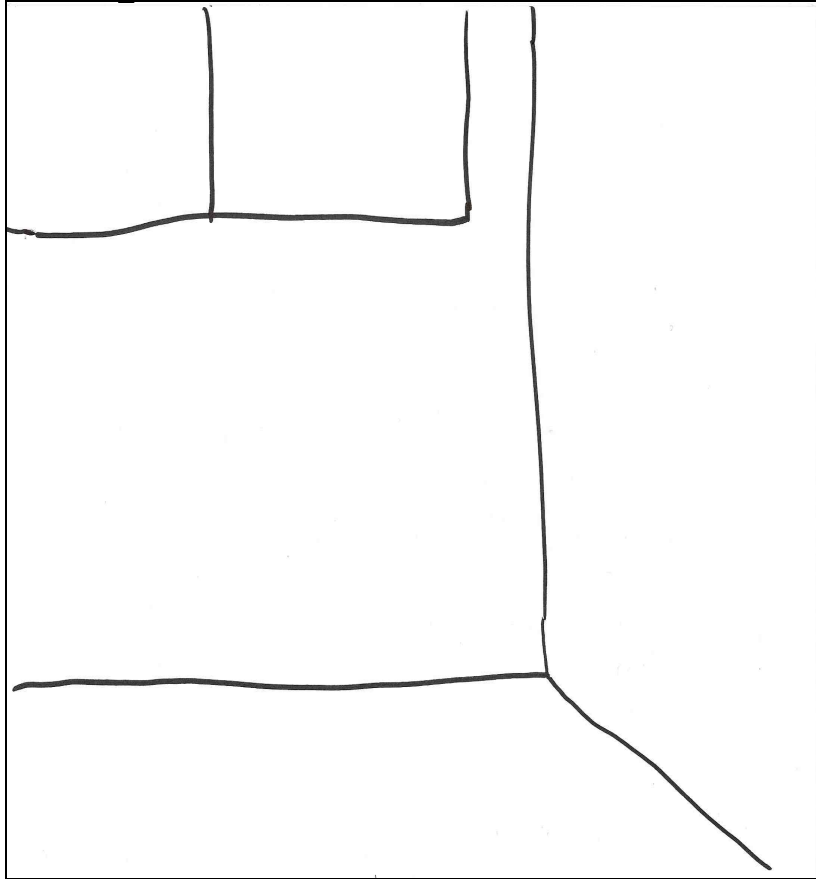

And then it was morning. So God the father, on the second day, made another wonderful room for His creation.

Day 2

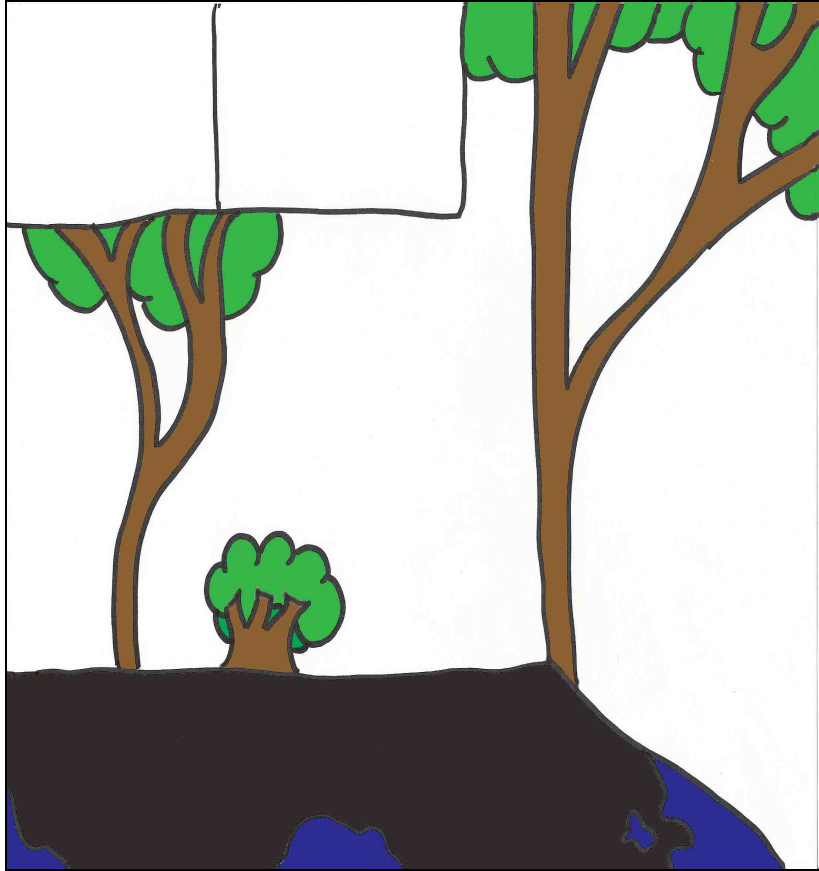

On day two, He made this room, separating the waters and He made the sky and then it was evening.

Day 3

And then it was morning. So God the father, on the third made another wonderful room for His creation.

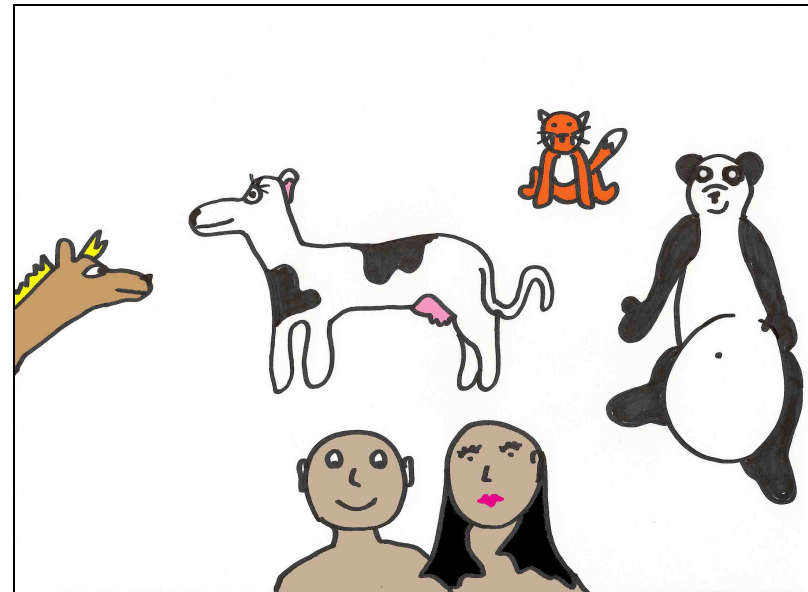

Day 3

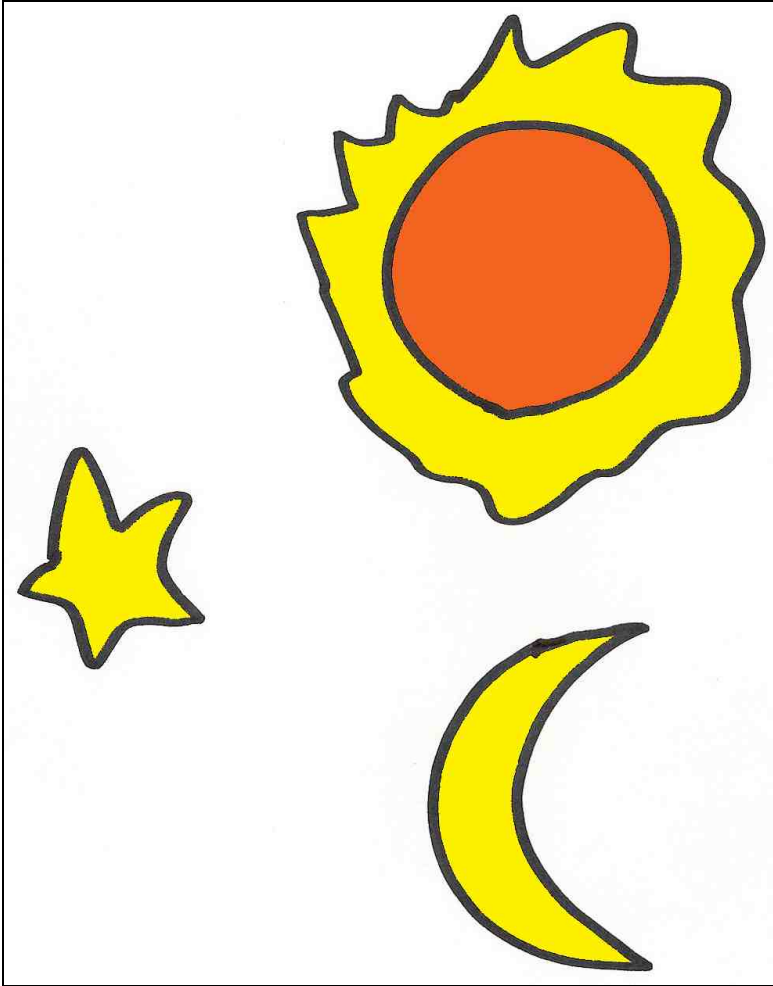

On day three, He made this room, gathering the waters, He formed the land, and placed trees and vegetation upon the land and then it was evening.

And then it was morning. And God had finished making his rooms so he now gave life to His creation and He placed them each in their own room that was especially made for them.

Day 4

God the father, on the fourth day
created the stars,
and the moon, and
the sun.

Day 4

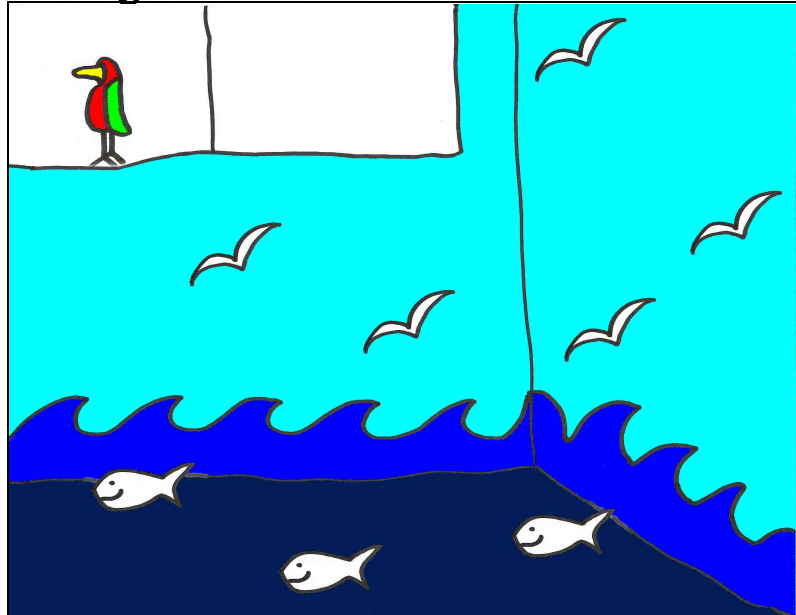

He placed them in the room that He had lovingly prepared for them – the room of light and of darkness and then it was evening.

Day 5

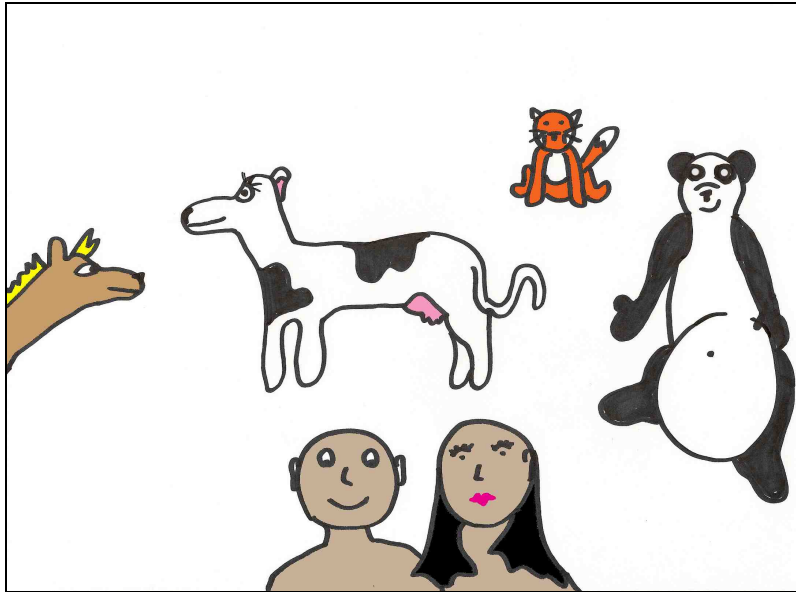

And then it was morning. God the father, on the fifth day created the sea creatures, and every bird, and winged creature.

Day 5

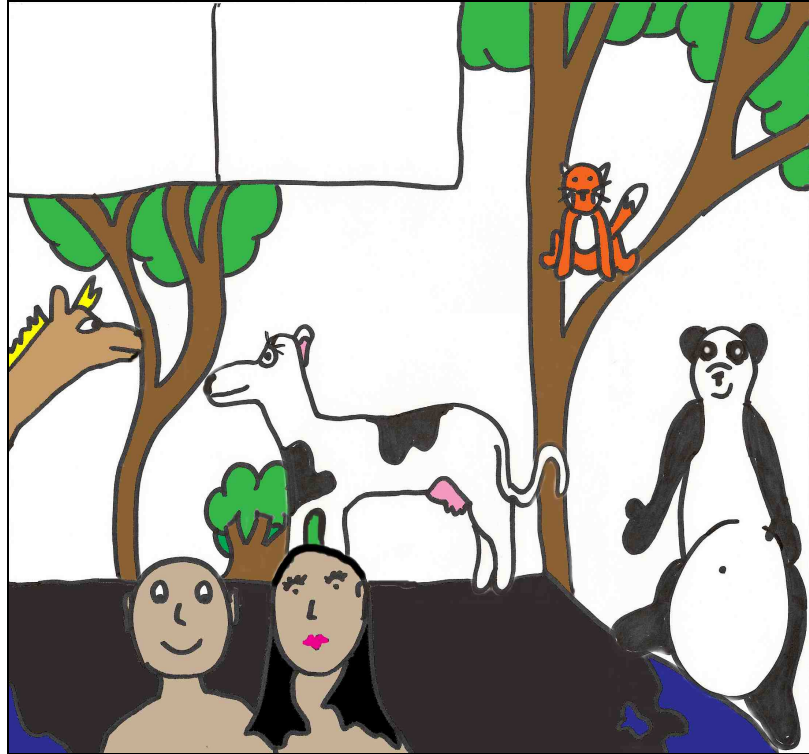

He placed them in the room that He had lovingly prepared for them – the room of the separated waters and of the sky and then it was evening.

Day 6

And then it was morning. God the father, on the sixth day created the land creatures, and every animal that walks upon the ground.

Day 6

God created humankind in His own image and He placed them in the room that He had lovingly prepared for them – the room in which He gathered the waters, made the land, and planted the vegetation, and then it was evening.

Day 7

And then it was morning. God the father, on the seventh day, He rested from His work. The rooms were finished.

